Stakeholders mapping and analysis concerning SWM In Bissau

Stakeholders are potential partners or adversaries of the project

	Designation	How are they affected by the problem?	What is their capacity to bring about change? (in keywords)
1. Final beneficiaries)	Citizens of autonomous sector Bissau (492 000)	Suffer from poor waste management, health risks, and dirty environment	Do some efforts Community participation, adopt clean practices, pressure authorities, join awareness campaigns
2. Potential local target groups/ project partners: • NGO's, associations	Local environmental NGOs (e.g. ISWA, Tiniguena), local development NGOs (e.g. Action for Development (AD))	health and environmental projects are undermined if waste is not properly managed	Mobilize communities, raise awareness, pilot recycling, advocate
• professional Unions	Uniao Nacional Dos Trabalhadores (National Workers' Union)	Face unsafe and unhealthy working conditions in waste handling	Represent workers, demand protection, negotiate better conditions
• community leaders	Neighborhood leaders and local village councils	Thier communities face health risks, pollution, and dissatisfaction due to unmanaged waste	Mobilize volunteers, then influence the behaviors of their communities
• religious leaders	Catholic church of in Guinea-Bissau; Organisation of islamic cooperation in Bissau	Face waste around worship places, expose followers to risks	Convice people to do some efforts
• local authorities	Bissau Municipal Council (CMB)	Face public pressure, complaints, health risks, service gaps	Enforce regulations, contract waste services, budget allocation, coordinate with NGOs
• National Authorities and Agencies	Ministry of environnement Ministry of health Ministry of education Umaro Sissoco Embaló (president)	Poverty and bad sanitation will create troubles in the country	Bring money and organization Put some rules
• private sector	CDE in Bissau – a building company, KROHNE in Bissau – a measuring/building; Pure aqua.inc - water treatment	Lose clients and face higher costs in dirty urban areas	Invest in services, supply technology, support recycling, build PPPs(Public–Private Partnership)

• etc…
Concerned European civil society (= potential lead or co-applicant	-European Environmental Bureau(EEB), -Climate Action Network Europe (CAN Europe), -Health and Environment Alliance (HEAL). -COPIP (EU-based), -WRAP (UK-based)	See health/environmental crises undermining stability, development and investments.	Provide funding, share expertise, technical assistance, policy dialogue, institutional capacity building, co-lead projects
Concerned Bilateral and multilateral cooperation	ECOWAS （Economic Community of West African States） Neibourhoud countries African develope bank	Face regional pollution and health risks from poor waste management	Provide funding, coordinate regional policies, support technical assistance
Concerned International Organizations: UN agencies, foundations, funds and programs	-World Bank -UNEP （United Nations Environment Programme） -UNDP （United Nations Development Programme） -WHO （World Health Organization） -International foundations and funds (e.g. Global Environment Facility, Green Climate Fund)	Confront global impacts of climate change, health risks, and urban environmental crises; Economic stability in the world	Provide funding, deliver technical expertise, support policy reform, strengthen institutions
Potential national public and private financial backers	Ministry of finance National Bank of Guinea-Bissau local commercial banks	Face economic risks from poor waste management and public health costs	Provide loans, allocate budgets, support investments
Potential European and international financial backers	European Investment Bank (EIB), European Union (EU), African Development Bank (AfDB), World Bank, International Monetary Fund (IMF).	Concerned with stability, sustainable urban development, and climate resilience.	Provide large-scale funding, technical support, policy backing
ETC…			